

SCANDAL IN SCHMITZ CASE!

Talesmen Are "Approached" by "Plain Clothes Men" From Police Department for Defense

HALSEY APPEARS Owing to Error Case Goes Over One Day.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Prior to the resumption this morning of the Schmitz trial in Judge Dunne's court, Attorney Schlesinger appeared for Theodore V. Halsey, of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, in the matter of the additional indictment returned against him by the grand jury last Friday charging the bribery of a Supervisor.

Mr. Schlesinger stated that Attorneys D. M. Deimas, W. P. Humphrey and himself would defend Halsey, and asked that the name of Mr. Deimas be entered as one of the attorneys of record for the defendant.

He said Halsey was in court ready for arraignment on this indictment, but through a clerical error the case had not been entered on the calendar, so the arraignment was set for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

In order to allow Mr. Deimas to examine the ten indictments previously returned against Halsey and the transcripts of testimony before the grand jury, arraignment on these counts was postponed until Saturday, June 1.

ARRAIGNMENT OF GAS OFFICIALS IS CONTINUED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The arraignment of the gas officials indicted by the grand jury for bribing the Supervisors did not take place in Judge Lawlor's court this morning but was postponed until Friday. Consequently Eugene De Saba, Frank G. Drum, John Martin, E. E. Schmitz and A. Ruef secured a short respite. When the case was called Ruef and Garrett McEnaney, who is to represent the indicted magnates, were the only ones present. McEnaney explained that his clients were not at hand because of a misunderstanding.

"Well," answered the court, "we will put the matter over to Friday and in case there is any reason at that time for further continuance, we can grant it."

RUEF'S SENTENCE TO BE DELAYED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Tomorrow is the day set for the sentencing of Abraham Ruef on the charge to which he pleaded guilty two weeks ago of extorting $1125 from proprietor Malfanti of Delmonico's restaurant on a threat to prevent the renewal of Malfanti's liquor license.

But sentence will not be passed upon the indicted boss at this time. Ruef will appear, the prosecution will move the postponement of sentencing and Judge Dunne will acquiesce.

The prosecution desires to delay Ruef's punishment until after he has

Local Carmen Aid Strikers

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—At the headquarters of the Carmen's Union this morning it was reported that the financial condition is constantly improving for the striking members of the union. A check for $1500 from the Oakland carmen was received today, and is to be used in paying the weekly strike benefits.

CARS Now Running on Many Tracks.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The street car situation today remains virtually unchanged. Cars were running this morning, without delay and with little trouble, on nearly all the lines of the United Railroads.

The service north of Market street, with the exception of the cable lines, which are not yet in full running order, apparently has almost resumed its normal condition.

In the section south of Market street the cars are poorly patronized, and it is in this section that most of the recent disturbances have occurred.

Officials of the company, however, are confident that conditions in this part of the city will soon improve. The strikers still assert that they are confident of ultimate victory.

"I WILL SEND YOU TO JAIL!" Said Judge Dunne to Attorney Barrett in the Schmitz Trial Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Of the fifty veniremen summoned into court today for the completion of the Schmitz jury—eight jurors already having been sworn to try the case—forty-one answered the clerk's roll call, nine were absent, twenty-five offered excuses to the court and were allowed to depart, leaving sixteen among whom to select four jurors to complete the panel.

Peter J. Winnegar, Eugene Casserly, J. R. Blanchard and L. S. Bachman were called to the box for examination as to their fitness to serve.

Winnegar, a retail liquor merchant, said he knew the Mayor very well and that his relations with him were very pleasant. He doubted that he could be an impartial juror. He was excused on a challenge by prosecution. Casserly, a wholesale liquor dealer, had formed an opinion on the guilt or innocence of Schmitz and did not believe he could properly try the case. The prosecution challenged him and he stood aside.

JUDGE THREATENS.

An exciting incident that led to a threat by Judge Dunne to send Attorney John J. Barrett, of the defense, to jail for contempt occurred during the examination by Assistant District Attorney Heney of Talesman J. R. Blanchard, a street contractor. Blanchard after declaring that he had formed no opinion in the case, stated that he had done a great deal of street work for the city under contracts let by bid, and other contracts privately; that his relations with President Duffy of the Board "are quite pleasant."

TELLS OF HOLDUP.

"Did you ever pay a $400 commission for the collection of one of your claims against the city after it had been held up by the Board of Public Works?" demanded Heney.

Blanchard started to parry the

TWO STREET CARS BADLY WRECKED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Two cars on the Eighteenth street line are piled up in a ditch at Seventeenth and Connecticut streets as the result of a wreck this morning.

The striking street car men say the accident was due to carelessness and ignorance on the part of the new employees.

Railroad reports are to the effect that someone probably tampered with the derailing switch, sending the cars into the ditch.

The accident occurred at the bottom of a steep hill. There is a derailing switch to throw cars from the track in case of emergency—one of the small cars which are now being run over the Eighteenth street line left the track at this point and toppled into the ditch.

A second car following, became uncontrollable and followed the first car, smashing it up.

The crews escaped without serious injury. There were no passengers on board so far as could be learned. Few people are riding in this part of the city at present.

JAPS Again Relate Story of Wrongs.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—United States Marshal Elliott spent the entire morning interviewing the proprietors and employees of the Japanese restaurant at 1132 Folsom street, which was wrecked by hoodlums last week, the incident forming the basis of a complaint at Washington by the Japanese Minister.

United States Attorney Devlin says that when the testimony is completed the report will be forwarded to Washington and that no action will be taken by the local officials until further instructions from the State Department are received.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—At the cabinet meeting today, Attorney General Bonaparte laid before the President and Secretary Root the report of District Attorney Devlin of San Francisco, upon the alleged assault on Japanese residents of that city. The report, Mr. Bonaparte says, shows that the first stories of the alleged assault were exaggerated and that the difficulty appeared to be a lack of police protection owing to the strike.

Secretary Root took the report with him, and if any further action is taken, it will be by the State Department.

College Building Eaves Honey-Laden

Thousands of bees, which have escaped from time to time from the apiaries in the entomological department of the State University, have taken up their abode under the eaves of the Botany building. During the past few days painters working on the roof of the building have discovered numerous hives where the honey-making business was progressing famously. From these classic sweet factories the aromatic workmen have taken several hundred pounds of honey.

When the first discovery was made painting was suspended for several hours, while the eight-dollar-a-day artisans searched all the crannies and nooks of the big roof in the hope of laying in a summer supply of sweetmeats for their families. Many of the successful hunters paid dearly for their rapacity, as the industrious insects strove valiantly to protect their homes and fortunes.

The bees were brought to the University a long time ago for the use of the agricultural department. Courses in bee culture are prescribed for the farming students.

Rich Towns Are Attacked

SWATOW, China, May 28.—The revolutionists are now attacking Chung Lang and Tung Cheng, cities in Ching Hai district. Many of the inhabitants have fled to this city. The uprising is attributed to excessive taxation.

EVIDENCE IN HANDS OF HENEY!

Attention of Court Is to Be Called to the Matter and Inquiry to Be Made.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Shortly after the noon adjournment of Judge Dunne's court in the trial of Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, Assistant District Attorney Heney made a sensational statement within the hearing of the counsel for the defendant, that the members of the police force of this city last night, went around and interviewed men who had been subpoenaed to appear today as talesmen in the case.

"Last night," said Heney in the hearing of Attorneys Fairall and Drew for the defense, "four police officers in citizens clothes went around and spoke to men who had been subpoenaed to appear here this morning as talesmen in the Schmitz case."

"In whose interest was this done?" asked THE TRIBUNE correspondent.

"In the interest of the defense, of course," said Heney. "I am not afraid to say what I feel and what I know."

"Who were they?" the correspondent inquired.

"They were detectives Grayham and Hammill, and two others. They are what are known as 'plain clothes men.'"

"Can you give the names of the talesmen whom they called on?" persisted the correspondent.

"I wouldn't give the details at this time," said Detective Burns to Heney.

This announcement was made when more or less excitement prevailed among those who remained in the court room to ascertain what was the purpose of Attorney Heney in publicly notifying a man named Alexander Bond who resided at 177 Steiner street to advance to the bar for the purpose of consulting with counsel for the prosecution.

When Bond complied with the order, he was surrounded by District Attorney

MERCHANTS QUESTION THE LEGITIMACY OF THE PROSECUTOR'S METHODS

Abe Ruef Ready to Furnish Testimony to Indict Men He Has Blackmailed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The business associates of the men who have been indicted as bribe-takers are today questioning the declaration that the findings of the grand jury are the result of a conspiracy. It is a well known fact that they declare that the interests represented by the indicted are antagonistic to enterprises controlled by men close to the prosecution. And aside from this, there is a well-founded rumor to the effect that Abe Ruef has decided to get even on all men with whom he did, or tried to do business, because they refused to come to his aid either physically, morally or financially when he was arrested for extorting bribes from the French restaurant keepers.

It was Ruef who supplied the grand jury with the missing links in the testimony in several of the cases under investigation, especially in the matter of the trolley trust bribery and the fixing of gas rates.

While Detective William J. Burns had gathered considerable damaging evidence against the officials of these corporations, he failed to get a sufficiently complete case to legitimately warrant indictments until Ruef took the stand and testified that they had personally paid him the money to believe the Mayor and Supervisors.

The friends of the men indicted in consequence of Ruef's testimony are open in their charge that the fallen boss furnished the missing links in the half-baked graft charges in order to get even.

Probably the most widely discussed indictment in business and financial circles thus far filed by the grand jury is that of Frank H. Drum, who for nearly twenty years has enjoyed the absolute confidence of the great financial interests of this city and Oakland.

Mr. Drum is a director of the Pacific States Telephone Company. He is also a director of the gas company. For years he has had charge of the vast interests of the Davis and Haggin estates and scarcely a legitimate financial enterprise had been launched here during the past decade in which he has not been personally concerned.

Never in his career has he been even remotely identified with any proposition of a questionable nature, and that is saving a great deal in these days. Among his associates are the most prominent and respected citizens of California and all with whom he has been identified, either socially or in a business way, regard him as the soul of honor. His word is accepted as his bond and the army of merchants and bankers who have enjoyed commercial relations with him, openly sneer at his indictment which, by the way, was voted by the grand jury on the testimony of Abe Ruef, a self-confessed thief.

Ruef, who earned the contempt of all unfortunate enough to have associated with him in the past long before the graft prosecution was thought of, testified before the grand jury that Frank Drum paid him money to bribe Schmitz and the Board of Supervisors in order to secure an $50 gas rate. Under oath, Drum denied that he ever bribed Ruef or anybody else, in the interests of the gas company or any other concern. But for some occult reason, the grand jury decided to believe Ruef, the self-confessed thief, in preference to Drum, whose reputation for veracity and integrity has never been questioned.

Ruef has told the prosecution that he has not long to live. The late snappers at the old Pup and the wine bottles in which he nightly indulged have wrecked his stomach. It is only a matter of a few months, he says, when he shall have gone to the bosom of his fathers. Because of his nearness to the grave, the prosecution believe that Abe can tell the truth and nothing but the truth. But those who know Ruef best, openly declare that it is quite impossible for him to tell the truth whether in illness or in health.

Out in the old Schmitz home, where he is in the custody of Elmer Bixby, Ruef whines over what he terms his desertion by the men he blackmailed. Now as a matter of fact he never befriended anybody and he cannot understand why the men whom he extorted bribes and who were forced to submit to his blackmailing tactics in order to do business in old San Francisco, have refused to see him or to aid him. And so Abe has determined to put them in jail if he gets a chance to do so.

While a thorough and impartial in-

Langdon, Assistant District Attorney Heney, and Special Prosecutor Johnson, and for ten or fifteen minutes Bond kept up an animated conversation.

The effect of this story was that he had seen his name in THE TRIBUNE and other papers as having been drawn on the great jury box as one of the talesmen who were to report this morning for examination. He said he had waited in vain for the sheriff to subpoena him, but neither the sheriff nor any of his deputies appeared. When he came to court this morning for the purpose of ascertaining how his name could have been drawn and why he had not been subpoenaed, he had learned, he said, that a certain Frank Bond, residing at 117 Steiner street, had been subpoenaed in his stead, and that that gentleman had made his appearance and had been excused by Judge Dunne.

The story of Bond was told in a manner which conveyed the idea that Bond believed the sheriff had intentionally subpoenaed some other person in his stead. Bond's statement caused some misgiving among the counsel for the prosecution. "Do you think that the sheriff is not subpoenaing the people ordered on the venire?" Heney was asked. "I can't say at this time, but I may be able later to speak on the subject," replied Bond.

Regarding the charge of Heney and Detective Burns that policemen were talking with talesmen before the appearance of the latter in court, District Attorney Langdon was asked if he intended to bring the matter to the attention of Judge Dunne, and replied:

"If the charge can be verified, we will certainly bring it to the attention of the court."

"But Mr. Heney makes an assertion to that effect, and evidently Detective Burns agrees with him," said THE TRIBUNE man.

"They certainly are reliable," said Langdon. "I have no knowledge myself on the subject, but if we verify the matter there is little doubt that we will bring the conduct of the detectives to the attention of the court."

KUROKI SHOWN CHICAGO STOCK YARD

Distinguished Japanese is Lavishly Entertained in the Windy City.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Two men were today shown a broken glass and a score of other sustained slight injuries early today when a street car upon the Calumet Electric Railroad was shown from the tracks by a torpedo at Ninety-third street. The car was jammed with men, and the explosion caused many were thrown down and trampled.

A rumor which found some credence was that the torpedo was planted with the design of blowing up some prospective business and the gambling boat City of Chicago, whose landing place is about a block away. The theory advanced being that it was planted either by religious fanatics or by rivals of the City of Chicago. The police have found no evidence to substantiate this report.

"PRINCIPLE"

Says President Calhoun, Regarding Efforts at a Compromise.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—"There is no use," said President Calhoun this morning, "to talk of a compromise or a settlement in the street car strike. There is no one to compromise with. There is no one to settle with so far as I am concerned."

"As I have said, the union, from our standpoint, is no longer in existence. I have plenty of men to run the cars, and the only feeling I shall have in the future with the old employees will be as individuals when they come to ask for work."

"I have secured one hundred and fifty men in San Francisco during the present strike who are glad to work for 25c an hour. I am standing now on a principle which I have insisted on from the beginning, that a man has a right to employ labor under whatever conditions, and circumstances life business may warrant him in procuring."

"The union any more than I would a band of lawless cowboys. They are merely individual men, who, if possible, may be employed by the company again, but on those terms which we offer to individual men who are to do our work in the future."

DANISH ISLANDS SALE CROPS UP ONCE MORE

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, May 25.—It is stated here that the question of acquisition of the Danish West Indian Islands by the United States has been informally brought again by American Minister O'Brien in conversation with the Danish foreign minister, Count Levstam. It is considered, however, that political and other reasons will prevent Denmark from consenting to this sale. There is little probability that the government will be able to obtain a majority in Parliament in support of the proposition.

The plans will only be preliminary ones, but from that number, one will probably be selected as a working basis for a new municipal building.

Commissioner John Mullins states that the committee has ordered the plans drawn, the architects being instructed to provide for a modern and magnificent building.

TO CALL BOND ELECTION.

After the Mayor and the members of the committee have obtained a working basis, the date of the proposed building will be estimated and the council will be asked to call an election to bond the city in the sum of from $100,000 to $2,000,000 for the purpose of erecting a new city hall.

POLICE SEARCH FOR CONVICTED SALOON MAN.

BRECKENLEY, May 25.—Walter Sweetnam, one of the saloonmen convicted with August Hillebrand on charges of selling liquor without license, is being sought by the police. Both men were fined $500 by Police Judge Edgar on conviction under the state law and Hillebrand served one day in jail, then paid $400 for his release. Both cases were appealed and the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco sustained Judge Edgar. Sweetnam has not shown up, and Monday Acting Town Attorney Scott received a certified copy of the opinion handed down by Justice Hall. He then asked for a bench warrant against Sweetnam and Police Judge Edgar issued the same. Now the police want Sweetnam and when found he will pay $400 into court or serve a like number of days in jail.

Britton Will Give an Object Lesson

BERKELEY, May 22.—At the meeting of the town board of trustees last night B. F. Britton reported to the board that the Berkeley Gas and Electric Company offered for his company to install three poles on which will be four sixteen-candle-power lamps, three sixteen-candle-power lamps and three thirty-two-candle-power lamps, and give electric current and attention for one month free of charge. This is done to show the value of the thirty-two-candle-power lamps. If these are used entirely the company will furnish the electricity. The company will install the poles at a cost of $175 a month and the company will not exceed $175 a pole a month.

Mr. Britton made a motion that the contract be entered into by the board of trustees. The board of trustees voted to accept the contract. The company will install the poles at a cost of $175 a month and the company will not exceed $175 a pole a month.

PEANUT STAND EXCLUSION.

Trustee Connor was the only abuser last night from the meeting of the board of trustees. When that part of the street committee report was read, relative to excluding peanut stands and other street vendors from the highways, Mr. Connor asked that an exception be made in favor of a paralytic who has a peanut stand in South Berkeley. Mr. Olson thought a high license would be best for all concerned, while letting town attorney Stuart said Mr. Connor's request would not be granted. It would give a favor to one party while others would be shut out. Finally the report was adopted after cutting out the peanut stand portion and this part was referred to the town attorney.

THREE STREET OPENINGS.

Mr. Olson asked that a resolution be passed authorizing the City Engineer to proceed with the opening of Sixth, Eighth and Ninth streets from the north line of the Holt tract to the north line of Snyder avenue. An amendment leaving out Sixth street and adding Tenth street was adopted in lieu of the original motion. The assessment district was made 150 feet east of Tenth street, 180 feet west of Eighth street, and 180 feet west of Tenth street and to the north line of Holt tract.

CHANGE STATION NAMES.

In a communication from the Southern Pacific Company relative to change in names of certain stations in Berkeley the company said they have no objection to the trainmen calling stations by names requested, but do not feel called upon to change the names as their tickets, time cards and stationery bear the old names and would not be easily changed. The principal station named changed is from Lorin to Alameda avenue, and this will be done as far as the trainmen are concerned. Another is to change Posen to Bancroft in calling the street. A further request will be made that the trainmen call all the streets at which trains stop instead of the station names.

RESCINDED RESOLUTIONS.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. "OUR FRUIT HAVE ALWAYS KNOWN THAT THE FRUIT ARE NOT MAKING AS MUCH OF THEIR CROP AS IT IS POSSIBLE TO DO, BUT THIS IS NOT DUE TO ANY IGNORANCE ON THEIR PART. IT IS TRUE, A LARGE PART OF THE FRUIT CROP IN CALIFORNIA IS OFFEN LEFT TO ROT ON THE GROUND OR FED TO PIGS FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT THE GROWER FINDS IT CHEAPER TO DO THIS THAN TO ATTEMPT TO MARKET HIS CROP AS LONG AS LABOR IS AS HIGH AS IT NOW IS."

"California fruit growers are often severely criticized for permitting their fruit to rot when the market prices are so high that many persons are unable to buy it. But this is due to no indifference or selfishness on the part of the grower. He cannot market his crops nor can he afford to hire men to assist him in drying and curing his fruit when labor is as scarce and so high."

"The pure food law will assist fruit men very much. Heretofore the farmers could not compete in the manufacture of fruit as long as the grower could get into his cellar and by diluting a barrel of water with sulphuric acid, sell the stuff as vinegar. The manufacture of pure vinegar has been almost impossible under that condition. Here in this state there are vast quantities of grapes and apples that can be used in this way, and it is here that we will see the fruit men using part of their crop in this way."

"What to do with the fruit crop so as to market it with some profit is one of the grave problems that the California grower is now confronting with. The world wants our fruit and we can supply the demand, but how to accomplish this so that the grower can make some of the profit, is an industrial snarl that requires to be untangled."

talent that will make the production extremely entertaining. One of the unique features will be the Elizabethan dances. The girls in these dances have been practicing under the direction of one of the best-known professional teachers. The cast of characters is as follows:

Don Pedro ..... Miss Leigh Stafford
Don John ..... Miss Florence Early
Margaret ..... Miss Mabel Sadler
Ursula ..... Miss Mansfield Everett

Benedict ..... Evan Foulds
Claudio ..... George Rurnham
Don Pedro ..... Arthur Ablegrew
Antonio ..... Daniel Conrad
Leonato ..... Roy Bowen
Don John ..... Charles Rakestran
Belshazzar ..... Ross Mahon
Friar Francis ..... Harry McBride
The sexton is on sale in both Berkeley and Oakland. The students of the high school will act as ushers on the afternoon of the play.

CELEBRATE '07 CHAMPIONSHIP

Alameda High Students Hold High Carnival at the City Park.

ALAMEDA, May 22.—The High school students last night and yesterday celebrated the winning of the baseball championship of the Academic League by a rally, serpentine and other student festivities. Last night the city park was crowded with the students and those interested in them and one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in this city was presided over by Donald Bailey, president of the associated students of the school, in a manner that would have been a credit to any political leader.

COURT FINES BELATED JUROR

Witness is Also Punished for Tardiness.

BERKELEY, May 22.—The jury before whom Mrs. Frances Schleuter was tried yesterday adjourned her not guilty in the afternoon. Mrs. Schleuter was charged with having cut the ear of a live chicken, but the charge was not substantiated.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE LAW SAVES SOLICITOR

BERKELEY, May 22.—Mrs. Eleanor Golden, the book agent arrested Friday and booked for working in Berkeley without a license, was discharged from custody by Judge Edgar yesterday. The court held that Mrs. Golden could not be held on the charge as it was in conflict with the interstate commerce law.

NEW SITE PROPOSED FOR MUNICIPAL WHARF

F. W. Foss Lumber Company Offers Location on Delaware Street.

BERKELEY, May 22.—In opposition to the acceptance of the Heywood wharf another offer has been made by the F. W. Foss Lumber Company. The F. W. Foss Lumber Company offers a site for a 100-foot wharf at the foot of Delaware street if the town will build its municipal wharf there. No strings are on this offer. It is a bonded, clear-cut proposition, yet the trustees are juggling with the Heywood scheme and pay no attention to the new proposition of the Foss Company, which is free of all entanglements.

MAMMOTH HOTEL FOR STOCKTON

Booster's Club is Booming Bay City.

BERKELEY, May 22.—Elton T. Brown returned this morning from Stockton where he has been visiting for ten days.

"Stockton has at last awakened and is now up to the front," said he. "They have a 'Boosters' Club' there, composed of young men and as an evidence of what they are doing I want to say that the new hotel will be built as a result of the young men's work. This will cost at least half a million dollars and will be in the center of the business district, opposite the channel."

"At first $250,000 was the sum the boys started out to raise. Now they have $300,000 promised and more coming."

"We want a 'Boosters' Club' here. Then things will come as they should."

CROWDS OF BERKELEYANS VISIT OLD FASHIONED MART ON SHATTUCK AVENUE.

BERKELEY, May 22.—The Berkeley Free Market on Shattuck avenue, between Blake and Parker streets, opened successfully today. From early morning until late in the day shoppers were lined up along Shattuck avenue and inside the market enjoying the novelty of "marketing" in the good old fashioned way. Closson's land delivered the occasion and the market has been "dubbed" a decided success.

Everything on the market at this time of the year is found here. Berries, large and luscious, cherries red and black and appetizing, meats that make one hungry, vegetables fresh, crisp and wholesome, and the usual variety of fish was to be had and with candy stands, and delicatessen galore, there was nothing to be asked. Among those who have stalls in the market are:

M. Cohen, fruits; Nathan and Rosenberg, fruits and green vegetables; A. J. Adams, produce; A. Cordes, dairy products; Asmus & McDonald, dairy products and poultry; M. Petersen, pickles, chowchow and catsup; Berkeley Tea and Coffee Company; H. W. Grocer; De Lucca & Co., green grocer; Murphy, hogs.

Next Friday is another market day, when others will have stalls occupied.

PROGRAM AT CHRIST CHURCH

Works of Austin Dobson to be Given Second Production

ALAMEDA, May 22.—The works of Austin Dobson, and a play by W. D. Yeats, will be given a rendition at Christ Church tonight. Two years ago a similar entertainment was given and there was so much interest taken in the works of Dobson that it was thought advisable to repeat some of the scenes. The program for the evening follows:

1. Ninette and Ninon—Marjorie Deeken, Frieda Hiehl.
2. Tu Quoque—Cornelia Bowers, Ford Samuels.
3. Ballade-a-la-Mode—Charlotte Eberhard, Theodore Searle.
4. Au Revoir—Mrs. S. M. Haslett, Mr. Dennison.

CITY CHEMIST WARNS OF DANGER IN FOODS

ALAMEDA, May 22.—City Chemist Cunningham, in a communication to the Board of Health, states the belief that some action should be taken at different times of the year to warn people about the danger of partaking of certain foodstuffs. It is his opinion that for a city officer to properly fill his office he should warn the public of any dangers existing in foodstuffs. He states that at the present time, owing to the warm weather, it is not wise to drink milk without having boiled it and that all berries should be thoroughly washed.

BERKELEY ARTISTS ENTERTAIN AT DELIGHTFUL STUDIO TEA

BERKELEY, May 22.—The studio tea of the Misses Kleinschmidt at their Claremont home Saturday was a delightful event. The dining-room was beautifully decorated in ferns and red roses, while on the second floor ferns were the predominating feature, mingled with an artistic arrangement of pure-white roses.

In the studio a number of miniatures painted from life, and also many studies of ideal heads were on exhibition, as well as some rarely beautiful reproductions of old masters from the Dresden gallery. The tea was made by the artistesses and their friends.

Many compliments and words of appreciation were showered upon the talented young hostesses by their guests.

Mr. Hotchkiss, Mrs. N. F. Cole, Miss Curtin, Mrs. Robert Layne, Miss Elva Long, Mrs. J. B. Dennis and Mrs. Frank McCullough were among those who received with the Misses Kleinschmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ford have started on their homeward way from Southern California.

Mrs. Colby and Miss Lottie Colby have also started home and will arrive soon.

Oliver Campbell, a local contractor, was married Friday morning in Santa Cruz to Miss Edna White, daughter of Almon H. White of that city. The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the residence, which was artistically decorated with potted plants, evergreens and ferns. A wedding breakfast served on a table adorned with flowers followed. Only a few friends and relatives attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside here.

Bernard McMahon, a student at the State University, and a member of the Acadia fraternity, was left on the transport Logan a few days ago for an extensive trip. He has arrived at Honolulu, where he will remain for a short time before continuing his journey. With him on the transport were James Rogers and J. P. Pullen, also University men, who remained on the vessel which is en route to Manila and China.

Miss Ida Henley is another of those fortunate engaged girls whose friends are determined to make the last days before her wedding as pleasant as possible. Miss Henley will marry William Wilder the first week in June. Last Friday Miss Leonard entertained at five hundred in her honor. Saturday Miss Kate Bennett entertained thirty-five girl friends for Miss Henley at the Bowles residence on Telegraph avenue.

Miss Henley will be attended at the wedding by Miss Kate Bennett, Miss Adeline Gornall, Miss Gene Maurer, Miss Sarah Haseltine and Miss Grace Henley. The ceremony will be at the Henley home in Berkeley.

COST OF MARKETING FRUIT IS TOO HIGH

Professor E. J. Wickson Declares California Growers Face Grave Problem.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—A. P. riding to the farmers and fruit growers in this country to stimulate efforts to utilize the lower and less desirable grades of apples so as to yield a fair remuneration to the producer and remove them from competition with the better grades in the market, the plant industry bureau of the Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin on "Examination of Apples" designed to encourage work along that line. It points out that the portion of a fruit crop which is of too low a grade to market in the ordinary way can be made to pay a large part of the expense of maintaining the orchard if it is converted into some other form or handled in some other way than that practiced with the better grades.

BERKELEY, May 22.—"This suggestion made by the Department to the fruit men of this state contains nothing new," said Professor E. J. Wickson of the Agricultural Department at

"California fruit growers are often severely criticized for permitting their fruit to rot when the market prices are so high that many persons are unable to buy it. But this is due to no indifference or selfishness on the part of the grower. He cannot market his crops nor can he afford to hire men to assist him in drying and curing his fruit when labor is as scarce and so high."

"The pure food law will assist fruit men very much. Heretofore the farmers could not compete in the manufacture of fruit as long as the grower could get into his cellar and by diluting a barrel of water with sulphuric acid, sell the stuff as vinegar. The manufacture of pure vinegar has been almost impossible under that condition. Here in this state there are vast quantities of grapes and apples that can be used in this way, and it is here that we will see the fruit men using part of their crop in this way."

"What to do with the fruit crop so as to market it with some profit is one of the grave problems that the California grower is now confronting with. The world wants our fruit and we can supply the demand, but how to accomplish this so that the grower can make some of the profit, is an industrial snarl that requires to be untangled."

Why San Francisco Is Discouraged.

Perhaps the saddest thing about the San Francisco situation is the note of discouragement that has begun to sound like a dirge in the community. It is in melancholy contrast to the buoyant chant and forward step that but a few weeks ago rang so cheerfully through the stricken city. Then hope and activity animated the populace, spirits were high and the future was challenged with bold hearts and confident mien.

Now depression has taken the town like a contagion. Everything goes with slow and dragging step. Many building contracts are being canceled and the plans of others to rebuild have been suspended for the present or given up altogether. The merchants are complaining of bad business and not a quarter of the burned district rebuilt there is complaint of rents being too high. Money has suddenly become tight because confidence has been sapped and is in danger of being destroyed.

The reasons for the condition are not far to seek. The material dealers first put on the pinch and then the labor unions followed suit. Strike followed strike, culminating in the scenes of violence and disorder which have accompanied the street car strike. The paralysis of the shipbuilding industry put a swarm of idle men on the streets and added to the swell note of discontent and discouragement.

The graft crusade gave a stunning blow to a community already groggy from contention, strikes and disappointments. Following the shocking disclosures of graft in all departments of the municipal administration has come the revelation of a large number of prominent citizens of wealth, dentine with the leading enterprises and largest financial interests of the city. Finance and politics were immediately involved in a mesh of corruption and intrigue. A band of boodlers have turned informers in the town riots with charges against citizens held to be in the highest repute. Every person who discussed municipal affairs with the knave is in danger of indictment. Every man who approached the Lord of Supervisors on any proposition involving an official permit or franchise stands at the threshold of San Quentin. A system of espionage secretly kept up for many months has struck fear in all directions. Private dealings, missteps having no connection with politics or the corruption so rife in politics have been made to play their part in the terrible drama of greediness and intrigue.

Nobody knows who to trust or what to expect. The machinery of justice is in the hands of a private committee which declines to reveal its purposes or take the public into its confidence. The press is charged with information distrustful and personal hatred while the labor unions appear in the light of being malevolent sport and instigation of contending factions having ulterior motives to serve. A corps of private detectives and a crew of political ruffians are enlisted in the crusade to purify the city of graft and corruption and they are zealously bringing to the bar of justice a great crowd of financial magnates who have heretofore been regarded as respectable.

Perhaps the conditions which have been produced are inevitable but they are none the less regrettable and disheartening. The effect on the rebuilding and rehabilitation of San Francisco is deplorable. Of course every good citizen must feel the necessity of exposing and punishing corruption in its bribery and graft will not let the heart out of my community unless they are repressed sternly. But the punishment of crime must be just as well as stern and must be honest and impartial and clear in its results. It must not bring the community into a lawless anarchy and thus be the cause of the suspicion of enmity or revengeful spirit. Honest judgment is not the fruit of unbridled passion and public purification can result from an effort to make it a private vendetta.

In San Francisco the community is not only broken into factions imbued with spirit of enmity and partisanship but apprehension and suspicion are rife. There is no solid and united public opinion to be relied upon. There is no such thing as an unimpeachable man. The average man sees in the administration of justice a mysterious engine propelled by secret forces and that threatens the person or property with destruction. He knows that the law is a knocking block and a guillotine in the hands of some suggestion of the pillars of public confidence in the community. While the terrible instrument of the law is being wielded by a secret coalition against financiers and other leading citizens. No wonder people are stepping over the law. No wonder they are ready to lend or invest money in business. No wonder they prefer to sell or lease their property at a bidding on the street. No wonder people are going as fast as they can and spending a little, so they can. The situation is the result of a combination of circumstances which seem to have pursued the city for a century. It is to be hoped that the light will soon break and justice be meted out to all evildoers. For San Francisco is badly in need of a tonic that will wake the people out of their lethargy and his outrage into which they are settling.

The colored voters are meeting all over the country and declaring against President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft because of the dismissal of the colored battalion. At the same time they are generally in favor of Senator Tamm who has stoutly defended the colored troops. While the colored people have an undoubted right to express their preferences they are making a mistake in raising the race issue in politics. They are making another mistake in drawing the color line. Because of ruffianism and lawlessness. The pretense that the colored battalion is innocent will not hold water. The process of the colored people against the outrages inflicted on them by the colored battalion will be prejudiced will lose force if accompanied by apologies for acts of ruffianism committed by blacks against whites.

A HARD SITUATION

Dr. Austin Flint the famous old a the Century Club in New York a proposition will be tested. He had been tried last year. The plaintiff lost and no words. His case was as difficult as that of the young man who appeared in July depressed after the death of his rich aunt. Why are you so sad, in a juncture said to the young man. You never appeared so care much for your aunt. I didn't said the youth doctored. But I was the means of keeping her in an insane asylum the last five years of her life and now that she has left it all her money I've got to go to court and prove that she was of sound mind.

In the days when Australia, Canada and South Africa were non-existent as arenas of imperial administration the go command of Jamaica was a rather important post. Peers and even dukes were glad to get it. Dukes never go a governing beyond the seas nowadays. They have become very stay at home personages. Jamaica has a trio of dukes on its viceregal roll. The Duke of Albemarle was governor here in 1687, the Duke of Portland in 1722 and the Duke of Manchester served no less than three terms—a record—1808, 1813 and 22.—London Chronicle.

THEY'RE ON THEIR WAY!

Status of Insular Possessions.

The Supreme Court of the United States has sustained the principle laid down by it some years ago that the Philippine archipelago is foreign territory for some purposes and domestic for others and that for the raising of revenue Congress may lawfully authorize the island government to levy and collect duties on imports from the United States.

In the present instance suit was brought in the Court of Claims against the Federal Government by a German merchant doing business in Manila to recover $16,827 which the plaintiff had paid as duties on imports from the mainland territory of the United States on the signature of the Treaty of Paris. It was contended that with the treaty of 1898 the sovereignty of the Philippines from Spain to the United States they became an integral part of the United States and that under the Constitution no imports could be imposed upon goods shipped from the mainland territory to them. The Court of Claims gave judgment against the government. It was carried on appeal to the Supreme Court which reversed the judgment and sustained the claim in a decision several years ago by Justice Brown that Congress had the right to treat non-contiguous territory of the United States such as the territory of Alaska and its insular possessions as foreign territory for some purposes such as the raising of revenue and for domestic territory for military and all other purposes.

The interest in the present decision lies in the fact that when Justice Brandeis opinion was rendered and accepted as the majority opinion of the court although differing very materially from the opinions of all the other justices the court has undergone material changes in its personnel but instead of standing five to four as it did originally the majority in this latest case has been reduced to two namely Justices Brewer and Peckham.

THE CRY OF THE WANDERER.

Once I used to ride in to rid up where the bunch grass waves and glimmers.

In the sunshine when the south winds mutter low
Where the sage is gray forever where the coyote sits and listens
For the tripping hoofs that ever come and go
But I tired of endless prairies of the baked brown, barren ridges
Where a score of bobbing riders look just so many midgeets
Grew to dread the first light fall of winter snow.

So I drew my summers wages quit the diamond in September
Said the boys. Oh boy you won't be long away
And when you get enough of it I want you to remember
That your piece is here and warm every day.
Sold my riding rig and horses—said that last transaction hurt me
For I'd had them many seasons. Wished so nobody'd up and quit me—
Look a drink and took the train and went—across.

Rambled east and craned in cities where the clanging street car rattle
Down man made canyons two or three stories high
Where the crush of moving humans beats a mill or frightened cattle Stood alone and watched a human flood sweep by Wandered down through cities not a soul to stop and greet me,
Hiding strangers in my loneliness that didn't care to meet me
(Often wished I was a girl so I could cry.)

So it's me for instant ranges far beyond the Mississippi
(I thank the Lord I've got the coin to pay the fare.)
Where a hearty welcome waits me where the folks ain't dollar-dippy.

Where there's room to move and breathe and some to spare,
When the big spring round up gathers on a cool, sweet scented morning.

At a camp among the sagebrush that the sun's first beams are warming.

You can bet your last lone dollar I'll be there!

COLONEL IRISH AND JACK LONDON.

Editor Tribune—Please permit me to correct a statement made by John P. Irish in his reply to P. V. Charles R. Brown printed in yesterday's paper. I have not the happiness to have read Mr. Brown's sermon and hence know nothing of the merits of the controversy further than that when Mr. Irish quotes Jack London as being in favor of the confiscation of all property to the end that it may be redivided equally, he is mistaken. Mr. London when he left these shores not long ago was in favor of the public confiscation of all property to the end that it might be redivided equally. He held that it should be redivided equally except as it should be legitimately consumed by those constituting society and then on the basis of giving to each according to his needs. He may have since re-adjusted his opinion but until recently he was deeply impressed with the unworthiness of a dividing up system whereby one man may become possessed of half a billion dollars more or less and 10,000 may receive only that which will sustain a mere existence. (By the way the issue containing the communication of a Colonel Irish also contained a dispatch from Washington stating that the census bureau had given out the significant fact that about 1,000,000 women of America are working outside of their homes for money wages. There is a short division somewhere when American women abandon home for factory.)

London as I understand him would have the nation own and operate collectively all the business institutions in which even the dividers—such as Colonel Irish still undoubtedly admit himself to be—would find it as difficult to acquire productive property as he would find it now. Mr. Editor to buy your interest and mine in the postoffice or the public schools.
Sincerely,
BRUNSON HURD

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish form after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

? WHAT IS A FLIRT ?

The Best Answer to This Question
Is Made by a Man!

Why Is It ?

People in England have been puzzling themselves over the question, "What is a flirt?" A London newspaper started the discussion and even offered prizes for the best replies. Thousands of answers were received. Of course men won the prizes—men, presumably, who had fallen victims to some jilt.

The best answer was said to be the following:
"A misguided individual who wants all love's roses without any thorns, and usually ends with nothing to show but scratches."

The second prize man tendered this reply:
"One who leads you to love's paradise and then rudely slams the gates in your face."

And the man who received the third prize answered in this wise:
"A sampler of Cupid's wares who can't make up her mind, and through her indecision is often left behind."

A woman received a consolation prize for this reply:
"One who, possessing charm, uses it; discovering power, abuses it; securing love, refuses it; plucks fairest fruit—and bruises it."

A prize of the same character went to a man for this effusion:
"A flirt is the wasp of society, rifling all the flowers of friendship, but producing no honey."

Other noteworthy answers were:
"A flirt is the destroyer of youthful belief in the goodness of human nature."

"A queer fish, having the voracity of a shark, arms of an octopus and backbone of a jellyfish."

"One whose heart is so susceptible and soft that Cupid's arrows pass completely through it without sticking."

"The moral earthquake that destroys our fair city of belief in both man and womankind."

"A flirt is a fraudulent person who by numerous devices tries to obtain love under false pretenses."

"A poacher with alluring snares on Cupid's estate."

"One who sees how near a lighted match can be placed to an unkindled fire without setting it aglow."

"One who plays with Cupid, but wears a suit of armor."

"The girl who plays with all the boys and treats them all as penny toys."

"A maiden effusive, attractive, elusive, of high hopes conducive, yet never conclusive."

"The average flirt is like the cheap boot—poor sole, plenty of tongue, elegant appearance, but weak in the uppers."

"One whose high opinion of her own attractions is only exceeded by her utter disregard of the feelings of others."

"One born with an immense capacity for love, a lamentable lack of control and a goodly touch of vanity."

"One who loves to lure victims to the Heights of Happiness—and throw them over."

"One who desires flattery and admiration from the opposite sex, and to gain that end ignores conventionalities and sincerity."

"The offspring of a vanity which makes women ridiculous and men contemptible in the eyes of all rational people."

"A thief who, to gratify vanity, robs sentiment of its feeling, friendship of its sincerity and love of its beauty."

"One who jangles life's sweetest melody and makes it out of tune."

"Girl who gads about and makes the boys all love her; when she's had her fling, makes a model mother."

"A creature without mind enough to reflect; heart enough to be constant; love enough to be true."

"One whose gratification is another's mortification."

"One who desires to please, craves universal admiration, experiments in love and helps to educate men to marry other women."

Progressive games were the order of the evening, and the prizes were carried off by Miss Elsie Barker and Gerald Ball. A dainty menu was served at 11 o'clock and some charming songs concluded the evening. Among the invited guests were: Miss Winifred Bigley, Miss Ethel Peckham, Miss Elsie Bonner, Miss Irene Nelsbitt, Miss Enid Bigley, Miss Irene Bigley, Mrs. Robert Gonce, Ralph Knight, Henry Jurgewitz, Victor Armer, Ralph Newcomb, Bernard Reed, Gerald Ball, C. Smith, Frank Hutton, R. Smith, Alfred Doby.

FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Mae Sadler was the fete guest at a charming affair given by Mrs. Charles Stewart and Miss Gertrude Mills at the Tea Cup Inn, San Francisco. Miss Sadler will again be the complimented guest at the reception planned by Mrs. Carl Schilling for next Saturday evening. Over 200 cards are out for the coming reception, and Mrs. Schilling will be assisted in her duties as hostess by Miss Mabel McNally, Miss Auth, Miss Rose Kales and Miss Anita Berteau.

Miss Lucy Mighell and Miss Mae Sadler were the honored guests at a reception given at the Coyle home, on Jackson street, San Francisco, on Saturday evening. The hostesses, Miss Maize and Miss Angela Coyle, were assisted in receiving by a bevy of maids from the younger set, and also by a few men, the informality of the occasion adding greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

These receiving with the Misses Coyle included Miss Alice Poorman, Miss Gertrude Mills, Miss Miriam Mills, Miss Laura Farnsworth, Miss Florence Sloper, Miss Alice Sheehan, Miss Miriam Lally, Miss Helen Gray, Thomas Churchill, Lewis R. Mead, Almer Newhall, George de Vol, William Farley, William Sheehan.

VISITING RELATIVES.

Captain John P. Madden, Twenty-ninth Infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah, is on a leave of absence and is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Madden, of Berkeley.

AT BYRON.

Among the arrivals at Byron Hotel Springs during the past week were the following from Oakland: J. Kinf, Mrs. C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lavenson, Miss Alma Lavenson, Miss Meta Rotermund, Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Ruth Houghton, Mr. James H. L. Hommedieu, W. F. White, Mrs. A. Rogers, J. Bearwald, J. A. Kirk, Mrs. F. Gremke, Miss Elise Gremke, C. S. Booth, Mrs. J. Layman, J. Pantoskey, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spears, Miss Lizzie Spears, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Rischmuller, Mrs. M. C. Robinson.

From Alameda—Mr. and Mrs. Raubinger, Mary J. Parkhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers.

PLANS CHANGED.

It is regretted that invitations to the wedding reception of Miss Louise Rodington and Dr. Alphon Walter Hewlett, who are to be married on June 12, will be recalled, owing to the recent tragic death of Dr. Hewlett's uncle, Alphon W. Whitney. The ceremony will be celebrated at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Trinity Church, San Francisco, and a large number of invitations have been sent out. These will not be recalled, but the reception, which was also to have been a large affair, will not take place.

BUSWELL-JARVIS.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jarvis and John Buswell will take place Wednesday, June 12, at the residence of the bride's mother, in East Oakland. Only the members of the Buswell and Jarvis families will witness the ceremony. After a short honeymoon trip Buswell and his bride will make their home in this city. The bride-elect is an exceedingly attractive girl, with a host of friends to wish her happiness. Buswell is a prominent young business man of Oakland.

SKATING CLUB.

The Lakeside Skating Club will meet this evening for one of the last two assemblies of the season. The club has enjoyed a successful series of meetings and has had a large membership.

IN NEW YORK.

Among the recent arrivals in New York are Mrs. C. N. Tharsing, of San Francisco, at the St. Denis Hotel; W. O. Campbell, at the Grand; J. and W. Dannheiser, at the Besslin; Dr. C. Edwards, at the Grand Union; E. Herzog, at the Cadillac; A. Keefe, at the Girard; W. Mallott, at the Earlington; B. K. Martland, at the Murray Hill; Mrs. A. Maxfield, at the Brozelli; Miss M. Melander, at the Murray Hill; W.

Views of AIDS in Tourney

MRS. G. J. WILLIAMS OF THIRTY-EIGHTH STREET, OAKLAND—SPECIALLY DEPICTED FOR OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

FOUR DAYS MORE THE EXPOSITION AND CONTEST OF ARMS AND THE PRIZES

Pictures of contestants in the arm tourney will be published here on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. By reason of the request of some of the candidates, quite a number of the views will not be seen by the general public, for they are to be scrutinized only by the committee of award. Of course, the likeness of the winners of the prizes will be printed, and the true identity of those victors will be divulged. Thousands of people of California and elsewhere are awaiting to learn who has posed most exquisitely in this rivalry, and who is blessed with the shapeliest arm in all Alameda County.

Of the volunteers for the competition about 150 have not yet made use of the free photo orders sent to them by their request. It is not too late for the pictures of more new recruits to be received by Phidias, and so those holding mandates should at once visit the gallery of Shaw & Shaw and face the camera for the few seconds necessary.

Reader, if you desire to enter the lists, but lack a suitable portrait of yourself, why write today to "Phidias, editorial department, OAKLAND TRIBUNE," and an order for photo depiction will be furnished to you. One dozen pairs of hosiery—of silk—to cost $50—will be given to the maid or matron who is adjudged owner of the loveliest arm, and a box of very desirable gloves will be the property of the lucky one in the other emulation—the essay to strike most graceful attitude before the camera.

"I have been photographed in five different styles," Phidias declares a TRIBUNE patron, "and I ask you to make a selection from all these examples, and the one you choose is what I want you to 'run' in the paper. If I should happen to win one of the prizes, it would please me immensely."

THIS WOMAN HAS SHOT FORTY-ONE HORSES DURING PAST YEAR

She Always Puts Them Out of Misery

NASHUA, N. H., May 20.—Mrs. Deputy Sheriff Jennie P. Powers has with tender mercy shot forty-one horses in the year past, and so ended their suffering. To enforce the laws against cruelty to children and animals the state appointed two women as deputy sheriffs—Mrs. Powers of Keene, and Mrs. M. Jennie Kendall of Nashua. There will be more such earnest officers in skirts, in all probability.

Mrs. Powers in her annual report states that she roams Cheshire county armed with a revolver and a camera. She aims the camera at a suffering horse, and, having got indisputable proof of its being halt or galled, enforces mercy at her pistol's point.

"I often find it necessary to make arrests," says Mrs. Powers, "and have locked up many offenders, including a number of men. I have a team and a driver, and thus far have not met with resistance when arresting a person. I usually inform a man or woman that I have been authorized to make the arrest, at the same time emphasizing the fact that any resistance will involve a greater penalty. As a rule this has been sufficient."

"Keene is a center for cattle traffic in New Hampshire, and I am required to inspect all cattle cars to see that the law against cruelty is being observed."

"I have no fear, and thus far nothing has occurred to discourage me in the work. I have very many photographs of children and animals to whom I have been able to afford relief."

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

Put all cakes in a very hot oven for the first eight or ten minutes, then place in a cooler part of the oven and slacken the heat.

To find out if a cake is done, stick a clean skewer into the center. If it comes out perfectly clean, the cake is done.

RUMORS and SCANDAL

Rumors, like snowballs, gather as they roll. And there is no truth whatever—so far as scandal is concerned—in the axiom that there is no smoke without fire. For some types of woman gossip are so imbued with the incendiary spirit of scandal that they can raise a mighty flare with the aid of only the woodwork of fiction.

The worst type of woman gossip is she who does her evil work deliberately, and whose utterances as to her neighbor are dictated by a bad heart. She loves to spoil things, and to act as a kill-joy. The worst gossips are women presumably happily married, and usually mothers of several children.

The woman gossip actuated by bad-heartedness is a curious study. There must be some sort of morbid fungus growth on the retina of her eye, for she sees evil where no evil exists. She is as keen to scent mischief as a hound to scent a fox, with the difference that the dog does not go off on a false trail. In nine cases out of ten, the woman gossip does—and she does not care, so long as she can furnish raw material to those of her kind, hungry to hear of somebody's downfall or the breaking up of a happy home.

DESERTS HIS WIFE FOR ANOTHER; IS ARRESTED

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 21.—John W. Klinger, who had served eight years as City Clerk of Hazelton, was arrested here this morning, charged by his wife with desertion.

Klinger was confronted by his wife and two detectives at 345 Fulton street, where he was found living with Mrs. Lizzie Mayer, a dashing blonde, of Hazelton, Pa., and a twelve-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mayer. The pair were living as man and wife. In default of $500 bail they were locked up to await action by the Grand Jury, now in session.

Mrs. Klinger said that her husband had simply gone crazy after Mrs. Mayer, and not only forgot his wife, but their six children, and that he had been enamored of the other woman for the last ten years. Mrs. Klinger, when told by her husband Sunday morning that he was going on a business trip for a day or two, traced the pair through the checking of their baggage to Elizabeth.

She at once pursued them, and sought the aid of Chief of Police Tenney, who sent two detectives in quest of them, and by her minute description soon found them. Klinger recently has been connected with a large piano concern.

TO THE GIRL ABOUT TO WED

The chances of a girl making a good wife depend entirely upon herself. It takes force of character to love deeply and to be worthy of deep love. Whatever the amount of love meted out to a good husband, he will return it with just equal zest, and will study his wife's interest with the greatest care and thought.

Those of us who, by force of circumstances, are obliged to work for our living have brains enough to appreciate a good man and a pretty home when such delightful links of happiness come our way. Money gained by the toll of our hands is a splendid thing; it is excellent training in any way. A hard-earned salary is a delight, especially if by the making of it we help to keep others as well as ourselves. We were not put into this world to drift. We are here to work—to fill the appointed places which have been allotted us.

Work is part of our portion here, part of the Divine scheme. When we think about marrying, we must not give up work just because we shall expect our dear chosen partner to keep the little home together. The girl who really loves, and has had to scrape together hard-earned wages, will appreciate the joy and beauty of a quiet, calm domestic life. When she sees the image of her own bright young beauty growing up around her, hears the pattering of little feet and the sweet childish voices, she will be thankful she once worked for her own living, which gave her so excellent a training for being a wife and a mother.

This Woman Once Dined With Longfellow

Mrs. Phineas F. Varnum, who celebrated her ninety-seventh birthday a few weeks ago, is the oldest woman in Portland, Me. Notwithstanding her great age, Mrs. Varnum's mind is as clear on the events of the early days of the country as though they occurred but a few years ago.

One of the fondest remembrances cherished by her is her wedding reception in 1832, at which she danced with Henry W. Longfellow.

Simple living has left Mrs. Varnum in full possession of all her faculties. She finds time daily to work on a piece of embroidery and reads the daily papers without the aid of glasses.

SECRETS

HE.
Sweetheart, bend your pretty head,
Bend it low, bend it low,
I've a secret my heart said
You should know, you should know;
Lift your bonny eyes of blue.
Hold your breath until I'm through:
Here's the secret—it is true—
I love you!

SHE.
Oh, the secret you have told
Unto me, unto me,
Ever new, and yet so old,
You'll agree, you'll agree;
Is so sweet because it's true;
But—I have a secret, too,
And—oh, well, I will tell you That—I knew!
—Charles H. Musgrove in Bohemian.

CONTENTED Man and Wife

Riceo is a poddler of the cream. He uses a queer looking wagon, which he hauls about the country as a storage place for the dairy and also as a sleeping apartment for his two children. Riceo and his wife make their beds wherever night overtakes them. Riceo has been a wanderer for twenty-four years. His wife has been a wanderer for ten years. Money with them is scarce. Their clothes are not fashionable. Their daily bill of fare is extremely simple. Yet they are contented, and in this pair and their contentment is a lesson for those who wish to read it. Here is what Riceo says, and what his wife says "Amen" to:

"I'm perfectly happy pulling my wagon around. For my part, I wouldn't change my occupation with Rockefeller, Morgan or any of your millionaires. My idea of happiness is a good day at selling ice cream, a good supper, a pipeful of tobacco, a clear sky and a bed of dry leaves."

A pretty way to mount photographs taken by amateurs is to purchase very thin mounting board, cut it about two inches larger than the picture in such a way as to leave the edges uneven. Paste the photograph lightly on it by the two upper corners.

Paint brushes may be cleaned by washing in hot soda water.

SUCH HOSIERY.

The hours I've spent upon the street
Where Twenty-third and Broadway meet.
I've watched the ladies on the beat—
Such hosiery! Such Hosiery!

Each pair a dream, each dream a prayer,
For winds that blow and sky that fair.
May I forever stand and stare—
Such hosiery! Such Hosiery!

Oh! Flatiron's memory bless and burn,
To open work and drop-stitch turn—
I size each pair and arrive at least to learn,
Which pair to chase—Gee whizz—
Which pair to chase.

HOW TO CHOOSE BRIDES-MAIDS

New York and Boston prospectors, Eassey and June brides have started a new fad in the way of bridesmaids and that is to have an equal number of blondes and brunettes. It is also very fashionable to have maids of a different type as a charming petite blonde has her maids and tall brunettes. This will no doubt accentuate the loveliness of the bride. But in the west as a general thing the bride chooses her maids from among her most intimate friends and without regard to their personal characteristics.

WOMEN PASS IN PROFESSIONS

Women are diligently seeking for information and cultivation in the broadest sense and the twentieth century woman is engaged in a great variety of pursuits. Like her brother she is in professional life as a teacher, a lawyer, a doctor, a writer, a scientist, a businesswoman, a social worker, a reformer, a stateswoman, a leader of opinion, a pioneer in every field of human endeavor.

ernment would hereafter in enrolling applicants for positions give the preference to men. The United States is the only nation which employs women in its executive departments in such numbers as to constitute a recognition of their value is clearly about nine per cent of the employees of the executive civil service being women. In nearly all the departments are women holding places of responsibility but probably none other has quite so exalted a position as Miss Clara Green who is attorney to the treasury department. While a stenographer in the office of the comptroller of the treasury, Miss Green began the study of law and being an earnest student graduated with high honors. From a number of applicants she was chosen for her present position not because she was a woman but in spite of that fact and she enjoys the distinction of being the only woman who has ever held this important office. Miss Green writes legal decisions on intricate questions that arise in the department of the treasury and many of her decisions have been sustained to the letter.

WAR IS A BARBAROUS RESORT

By Baron D'Estournelles de Constant
Eminent Worker in the Cause of Peace

The Russo Japanese war was an example of many others of wars that could be avoided, not which break out in spite of everything because the general education of public opinion is still too imperfect. We have never to thank American intelligence that the war was terminated. The Algerian affair also confirmed the instability of the League of Arms. I have no doubt that the League of Nations will be a permanent institution. A wave of apprehension swept over women's organizations last summer when it was reported that a League of Nations was to be organized. The League of Nations is a good thing and it is a good thing that it is being organized. It is a good thing that it is being organized. It is a good thing that it is being organized.

SNEAKERS.

Your boy is going blind, he wears sneakers. So spake a lay doctor to the father of a 12-year old olive branch. You are right as to his wearing sneakers, replied the father, but his eyes are as strong as those of the American eagle. I have been told many times that rubber soles affect the sight. Wherefore? The sneaker is light, it is pliable, it is noiseless, it is springy and having a canvas upper is well ventilated. The only objection I have is its lack of durability. The cost is from 59 cents to $1 a pair, and my boy wears two pairs a month. The rubber is adulterated, of course, and parts from the canvas on the slightest provocation. If some one would make a sneaker with a stout leather sole sewed to the canvas and not glued on, no child could build a quick fortune.—New York Press

A TRIVIAL MATTER.

This little story comes from the south. The first slice of the Christmas cake had been cut and the negro minister who had been invited to dine, looked at it with keen anticipation as was displayed in the faces around him. Data as fine as a goose as I ever saw a Brudder Williams, he said to his host. Where did you get such a fine one? Well, now, Mistah Rawley, said the carrier of the goose with a sudden access of dignity, when you preach a special good sermon I never axes you where you got it. Seems to me dat's a trivial matter anyway.

SAYS CLUB WOMEN ARE STUPID INFLUENCE TO IMPROVE THE WATER FRONT

Mrs. Sophia Lovejoy, in Defense of Mothers, Gives Conclusions.

BERKELEY, May 28.—"The club women of the country are all well-intentioned, and they are animated with pure goodness, but the trouble is, that they are as a working majority, too intensely stupid to use their efforts for any actual good. This is the conclusion I have come to after many trying years of intimate work in what is called the women's improvement of this country. Hereafter, I am content to exert my influence as a mother, not as a club woman."

Very quietly, but very positively, did Mrs. Sophia Lovejoy of Denver make these utterances. She spoke as one who, while certain of inevitable condemnation and possible abuse for such a sweeping statement, would nevertheless refuse to be swayed thereby. Mrs. Sophia Lovejoy was not only one of the organizers of the women's movement in Colorado, but no woman has taken a more active, intimate part in the work of giving solidarity to all the various enterprises in which the women of Denver and of Colorado have from time to time interested themselves. Even of the women prominent in the semi-public life of the state, Mrs. Lovejoy is one of the few who have taken a more active, intimate part in the work of giving solidarity to all the various enterprises in which the women of Denver and of Colorado have from time to time interested themselves.

"When I say that the women prominent in this so-called movement are intensely stupid, I say so in no spirit of malicious criticism, rather the contrary," continued Mrs. Lovejoy. "I have the women of this country in mind, who have taken a more active, intimate part in the work of giving solidarity to all the various enterprises in which the women of Denver and of Colorado have from time to time interested themselves."

"After all my years of effort in club work, I have finally discovered what was my fatal mistake. It is this: I have given the women of this country credit for more brains and less heart than they really possessed. The truth is, women bring very little trained intelligence to bear upon their efforts in doing public service. Their hearts are all right—thoroughly in a work, but as a body, women utterly lack the intelligence to make use of their own strength."

"Another thing that has militated against what we women might have accomplished had we sincerely and earnestly united our efforts, was this: The speaking of our names in the public press. The most trivial incidents of club activity were magnified, exaggerated out of all proportions to the truth and the reaction of this is that as a body, our efforts are belittled and our efforts are belittled. We are seriously regarded as thinking human beings endowed with mentalities that should entitle us to considerate attention. This advertising of women's names in the public press handicaps all the efforts in which women are interested. It confuses personal-

LINE-UP OF LEGAL LIGHTS Counsel as Selected to Defend Those Indicted by Grand Jury.

The list of legal stars lining up for the defense of the corporation magnates, the mayor and the boss extortionist, under indictment by the Grand Jury, grows in magnitude. In some instances the services of leading lawyers will be had in more than one case. Garret W. McEnerney will appear for the defendants in the trolley and gas cases; John J. Barrett will appear in the gas case and in the defense of Mayor Schmitz. D. M. Delmas, recently returned from the defense of Harry K. Thaw in New York, will take a leading part in behalf of the accused telephone men. The defendants and their lawyers so far announced are:

For Calhoun, Mullally, Ford and Abbott of the United Railroads—Attorneys A. A. Moore, Garret W. McEnerney, John Garber, Moritz Rosenthal of Chicago, Earl Rogers of Los Angeles and Stanley Moore.

For John Martin, Eugene De Sabla and Frank G. Drum of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company—Attorneys Garret W. McEnerney and James C. Sims.

For Louis Glass and Theodore V. Halsey of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company—D. M. Delmas, T. C. Coogan, W. P. Humphrey and Bert Schlesinger.

For G. H. Umben, W. I. Brobeck and Joe E. Green of the Parkside Realty Company—L. M. Hoefler.

For Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz—J. C. Campbell, W. H. Metson, Frank Drew, John J. Barrett and C. A. Fairall.

For Abe Ruef—Abe Ruef. Ruef appeared for himself yesterday and will announce his counsel next Saturday.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Suits to compel the Consolidated Gas Company and the eight other gas companies doing business in this city to relinquish their franchises and to take from them all the permits to use the streets which they now enjoy, was begun in the Supreme Court today by Corporation Counsel Billson on behalf of the city.

OAKLAND WOMEN PAY A VISIT TO THE POPE

ARE GRANTED A FAVOR

Mrs. Hugh Hogan and Daughter Enthusiastic Over the Eternal City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hogan, with their daughter, Miss Ella Hogan, who are traveling in Rome were granted an audience with Pope Pius X at the Vatican on Friday afternoon, May 10. Letters from the travelers tell of a most interesting audience with the head of the Roman Catholic church. The Oakland travelers were among the favored few admitted to the presence of the pope and esteem the privilege one of rare value.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogan left May 16 for Florence and will spend sometime traveling in Italy and other interesting countries of Europe. They enjoyed a delightful trip recently to Jerusalem and are planning to remain abroad for several months longer.

MRS. HUGH HOGAN.

HOWARD GOULD READY TO TALK

Is Expected to Make Sensational Charges Against His Wife Within Ten Days.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Although nothing official could be learned, the possibility of the entire divorce case of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould being threshed out before the United States grand jury became likely yesterday. A visit made by Clarence J. Shearn, Mr. Gould's attorney, to the office of United States District Attorney Sims, was looked upon as being highly significant. Shearn refused to admit that he had talked about the Gould case.

SENSATION ANTICIPATED.

Delancy Nicoll is not talking for publication, but statements were made today, evidently from his office, to the effect that Howard Gould intends making charges against his wife within the next ten days, equally as sensational as any that she has made. The statements are to the effect that the Gould family has been giving Mrs. Howard Gould plenty of rope and that they now intend to retaliate.

Mr. Nicoll had nothing to say about his confession that the municipal detective bureau had been used by him in the Gould divorce case.

It has been constantly stated during the last few weeks that the case for divorce is that Mrs. Gould's mail has been tampered with. The case will take on an entirely new interest if Mr. Nicoll or the postoffice officials admit that Mrs. Gould, herself, could be asked to go before the federal grand jury and, using what she said as a basis, all the witnesses she may have as to the holding up of her mail would be called to tell the details of what was done.

DETECTIVES IMPLICATED.

It is very likely that in this connection a certain private detective agency will find itself in a most unenviable position, and a central office of the mail may be asked to tell of the mail seizures. Today there was a full in the detective bureau end of the case. Although Deputy Commissioner Hanson said he had no further statements to make for several days, it is understood that he has struck a new lead. This matter involves the use of the detective bureau by outside persons for private ends, and constantly crosses with the Gould case, becoming a new feature of the divorce case.

Abe Himmelfarb is said to have put the deputy in possession of important information concerning the detective bureau that will probably result in a rush of captains, inspectors and lieutenants to retire before they are expelled from office and probably be made to face criminal charges.

FAILS TO PRESS SUIT TO SECURE HER WATCH

Miss Ora Williams, the young woman who yesterday obtained a search warrant to secure a gold watch, which she claimed was being held unlawfully by the landlady of the Astor house, where she had roomed, did not appear in Police Court No. 2 today, when the search warrant was returned. The case was continued until tomorrow. Miss Williams claimed that her watch was being held for payment for damage done because she spilled water in one of the rooms of the Astor House.

MILLIONAIRES IN JEOPARDY

Federal Inquisition in Colorado Involves Many Big Corporations.

DENVER, May 28.—The Rocky Mountain News says: That the federal inquisition now in progress in Denver involves some of the largest corporations in America and that indictments will be returned against men who are called as multimillionaires and capitalists of industry, known as well in Wall street as in Colorado, is the latest development in connection with the proceeding of the grand jury. No less than 120 secret services men now make their headquarters in Denver, thus small army of government sleuths having rented a large portion of the fifth floor of an office building, from where they are spreading the net that is tightening about victims in high places. Le C. Wheeler, in the service of the Department of Justice at Washington, is in charge of the secret service men, and he expresses the belief that there will be some startling revelations in the near future.

BURCH HAS ASSISTANTS.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Judge Burch, special assistant to the Attorney General, has been in Colorado more or less during the last two or three years in connection with the investigation of land fraud cases. He is assisted by L. C. Lewis, a special employee of the department of justice, and ten or twelve others who are connected in one capacity or another with the department; also a number of land office employees.

The latest information received here is that the grand jury is now in session and that a large volume of testimony is being presented against the persons alleged to be guilty in connection with the grabbing of public lands. Department of Justice officials here have no information as to the character of the evidence submitted, or what is being done by Judge Burch and his associates beyond the general statement that they have been quite successful in running down frauds. The names of those who are involved are not known here.

EVELYN THAW LIVES WITH MOTHER-IN-LAW

Devotion to Stanford White's Slayer Unites Woman of Family.

New York, May 28.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who has made the Hotel Lorraine her home during the many months her husband, Harry W. Thaw, has been in the Tombs for the murder of Stanford White, has left the hotel, according to an account published today, and with her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Thaw, has taken up her home in a house on Park avenue, near Fifty-ninth street. There the two women, whose devotion to the prisoner was a marked feature of his recent trial, will remain in seclusion for the summer. It is said, so as to be within call of the prisoner and to await events in his case. The second trial of Thaw will not be reached until fall.

DEMENTED GIRL KILLS MOTHER

Failing in Attempt to Shoot Her Father She Cremates Herself.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Miss Philander Salmon, thirty years old, believed to be demented, shot and killed her mother, attempted to kill her father, and then set fire to her garments and was burned to death early today.

The woman was released from the Dunning asylum a year ago. Her father, Joseph Salmon, a laborer, escaped by running out of the door.

A love affair is said to have been responsible for the young woman's aberration. Her mother and father were in bed asleep when the girl arose and found her father's revolver. She fired two shots at her mother, both of which took effect, and instantly killed her.

As Swinnen jumped from his bed the girl fired two shots at him. He was afraid to go near her and ran from the house to summon assistance. When he returned with a policeman and several constables they found the young woman lying upon the floor, her clothing ablaze.

Most of her clothing had been burned off. They put out the fire and summoned a physician.

HUSBAND SAYS WIFE IS AN AWFUL FLIRT

She Answers That Peanut Candy and Cheese at Midnight Made Hubby Ill.

SEATTLE (Wash.), May 28.—Mrs. Mamie C. Irish of Detroit, Mich., answering a complaint for divorce, charging that she was an incorrigible flirt, declares in an answer filed here that her husband insisted upon keeping her away from him and that he had her prepare dinner at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, so that the men of the neighborhood would have no opportunity of flirting with her. Mrs. Irish is in Detroit, and she says her husband is wealthy, but refuses to send her money enough to fight the case.

Irish complained that his wife's flirtations made him ill, but the Detroit woman sends him away across the continent on an assertion that peanut candy and cheese eaten at midnight caused the illness. Irish charges his wife with flirting on their honeymoon, in street cars, and even in church.

PAT'S REASONING.

An Englishman and an Irishman were walking along a country road when they chanced upon a farmyard and stole a horse from the stable. The Englishman was no good without a cart, stole a cart from the same place. The news about the cart and horse was spread, and the police were soon on their track. The Englishman, meeting the Irishman, with the horse, inquired of him where he got the horse. The Englishman replying that the animal belonged to him, said: "How can you prove it?" asked the policeman. "Because I have had it since it was a foal," was the answer. Pat overheard this conversation. He was pulling the cart along which the policeman stopped him, asking him if the cart belonged to him. "Sure," said Pat, "why, I have had this cart ever since it was a wheelbarrow."—Judge's Library.

CITY COUNCIL READY TO ACT

Have Ordered the City Engineers to Draw Up Plans and Make Estimates.

Preliminary steps for gigantic improvements along Oakland's waterfront were recommended last night by the committee of the whole of the City Council, which met in conjunction with Mayor Mott and City Engineer Turner. The committee briefly considered a resolution authorizing the City Engineer to draw up plans, specifications and estimate of cost of the building of wharves and docks.

Following is the resolution which was recommended by the committee, with the amendment that $1000 be appropriated for the use of the engineer in following out the request of the Council:

Resolved, That the City Engineer be and he is hereby authorized and directed to prepare and submit to this Council plans, specifications and an estimate of cost for improving the waterfront of this city between the northern training wall and the Southern Pacific pier.

If the Council passes the resolution at its meeting next Monday night, City Engineer Turner will follow out the following plans, suggested by Councilman F. F. Jackson, who has the improvement of the waterfront in hand:

First fill.—Commencing at a point 100 yards east of the easterly line of Peralta street, extended southerly to high water line, thence westerly three-quarters of a mile, thence at right angles northerly 1525 feet; thence at right angles easterly to shore line. Thence from the westerly end of said fill extend a pier 300 feet apart out one and one-quarter miles, same being 200 feet wide.

Second piers.—Commencing at or near the point of intersection of Peralta street extended southerly to water line, thence westerly two miles 200 feet wide.

These plans were recommended by the committee last night, the members believing that there should be some definite basis to work upon. Councilman Jackson has studied the waterfront situation at length and he declares that within the near future the city will have docks and wharves commensurate with its size and location. Councilman Jackson believes that there will be some conflict of opinion as to whether a bond issue for a city improvement of the waterfront should be given preference.

When the resolution before the committee was read last night, Councilman Everhardt moved that it be recommended and his motion was seconded by Councilman Ellsworth. Councilman Pendleton had been selected as temporary chairman.

Both Councilman Everhardt and Ellsworth spoke on the subject before the committee and favored an immediate start in the formulating of plans for the improvement of the waterfront.

We should have some definite plans as to what we want, concrete or wooden docks, and such things as that. We should have a general conference with the waterfront attorneys as to our rights and whether it would be a good plan to take control of the waterfront. There is a narrow strip still in litigation and will have to be considered.

Councilman Jackson then submitted his plans and was asked by Councilman Burns, whether or not the docks could be taken out two miles.

"Approximately," was the reply.

Councilman Jackson—We are only planning now and it is an encroachment on any one's property. We can alter our specifications. All that we should do now is to get the ball a-rolling. Have the matter brought to an issue.

City Engineer Turner was asked for an estimate of the cost of preparing the preliminary work and he stated it could be done within $1000. The committee recommended that this sum be appropriated.

Mayor Mott then took the floor, speaking briefly: "This is an intricate matter and there are many questions as to control of the waterfront which are still before the courts. There is a strip of land which circles the city, the ownership of which has not been established as yet. There is a great deal to be considered in the waterfront question and it is a great deal of study. You should not limit the engineer in getting up preliminary plans. Let him make a full report and you will then have a working basis. Take the matter up in a sane and sensible way and you will obtain results."

The matter was then continued for further discussion on June 6, at which time the Council will confer with the waterfront attorneys and the members of the Board of Public Works.

Councilman Burns withdrew his resolution which provided for the calling of a bond issue to obtain two millions of dollars for the improvement of the waterfront.

BABIES FED TO SNAKE BY FANATICAL INDIANS

New Kind of a Race Suicide Found

EL PASO, Tex., May 28.—In spite of the fact that a similar charge has been investigated and dismissed by a grand jury some time ago, another complaint has been filed with United States District Attorney Llewellyn of New Mexico, that a tribe of Indians in that territory are given to the worship of an enormous serpent to which is fed the new-born babes of a Pueblo in which it is housed and carefully tended and guarded.

This complaint was filed by a Catholic priest, who alleges that a dozen families were segregated from several pueblos around about two years ago and formed into a pueblo by themselves. That although it is known that many children have been born to these families, not a child is to be found in the pueblo.

This led the priest to press his investigation with the result that he discovered that in an adobe house, isolated and closely guarded, there is an enormous serpent, which is worshipped by the Indians of all the pueblos around and that every babe born in the small pueblo, and it is expected many others, are fed to the serpent. Major Llewellyn, having no jurisdiction, has filed the affidavit of the priest and other evidence with the territorial authorities.

FERGUSON LOTTING CARS, SAYS WATCHMAN

The trial of James Ferguson, formerly a railroad police officer, charged with petty larceny, was commenced in Police Court No. 1 this morning, but was continued until June 1 for further trial. Ferguson is charged with Roy Williams, C. F. Semple and William Clarkson with having looted cars in the West Oakland freight yards.

J. Hughes, a car repairer, testified that while he was walking through the yards and flashing a lantern on a freight car he saw the face of Ferguson on the car.

The other three accused men claimed that Ferguson took part in the looting of the cars. They are now out on probation.

JUSTIFIED.

"What was the charge against him?" "Using profane language in a public place."

"Was he acquitted?" "Sure. At the time he used it he had just paid his gas bill."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

WITH GIER'S TONIC PORT

Port Wine as a tonic has been used by the public and recommended by all leading physicians since time immemorial. It is the only one of all the patent nostrums or new advertised as a cure-all it was the old standard. And it should be so today, on account of the fact that it contains more of the red blood-making properties than any other known tonic, which are so commended by nature. The greatest benefits are derived therefrom by the human system.

And of all port wines, there is none equal to "Gier's Tonic Port."

PLAUDITS FOR OAKLAND GIRL

Nance O'Neill as Zoraya in "The Sorceress" at Ye Liberty Scores Success.

Nance O'Neill began the second week of her engagement last night at Ye Liberty Theater in the leading role of Zoraya, a great drama, "The Sorceress." There was a fair audience, but it lacked enthusiasm and was not as representative as the occasion merited. It was at this time that the audience came to pass that in cultured Oakland a large list of society matrons, elegant gowns and inter-theater parties indicate the success of the production. I think not. The theater-going public of Oakland does itself little credit by following foreign bands and foreign gods, when one of their own daughters, through the enterprise of our own people, receives but just homage.

Fortunately, or unfortunately, Nance O'Neill is not a debutante and her art has never received so much harsh criticism at the hands of local critics, and audiences have been given by her in the past. I do not desire to halt her as a superior of equal to Reinhardt, but I am sure that she is one of the best American actresses to be seen in Oakland. My penicils on this stand are secure, for there is no one on the stage at present who equals her. "The Sorceress" is on her side as against Mrs. Leslie Carter, Julia Marjorie looks to come in Shakespearean roles, while Miss O'Neill looks to come in modern roles. Miss O'Neill has been a different star since she came to Oakland. Her success in her business ventures, her success as an artist, her success in business ability, but she has at any rate stood her ground as typical of her native State.

In her delineation of the character of Zoraya in "The Sorceress" she shows marked improvement since last week. Her play is one of the best of the season. The whole story is worked out with skill and dramatic technique, and Nance O'Neill's conception of the role is a masterpiece. She has given it a careful reading and has grasped its meaning. She works up carefully to the role of Zoraya, and then she has the physique to appear to advantage in the role. She is a perfect actress, and her performance is a masterpiece. She is a perfect actress, and her performance is a masterpiece. She is a perfect actress, and her performance is a masterpiece.

EIGHTH STREET THEATER.

This is certainly a bumper week at the Eighth Street theater as far as the program is concerned. The new bill was given last evening before a large audience. The hit of the performance is a Turkish two act drama entitled "The Sultan of Sahara." The scenes are placed in desert and show the true life of the Arabs. The principal characters are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates, Ed Vaughn, J. Cummings, T. Hooper, Nell Brodie, and Mrs. Brodie. In putting the play on this week Manager Hadji made a good move. The audience children do some clever singing work between the acts. The performers are all heartily received for their excellent acting. The vaudeville offerings are above the average and consist of Brodie and La-tam as banjoist and subterfuge. The two comedians entertain on the mandolin and give vocal renditions. Miss Clara Walsh as the "Irish Biddy" keeps the audience in constant laughter. The two comedians are a clever sketch team. Miss Olive Cummings sings an illustrated song in a most acceptable manner. Latest motion pictures entitled "Two Much Mother-in-Law" rounds up an entertainment that is easily worth ten times the price of admission charged—which is never higher than ten cents. There are at least two evening performances and one matinee daily, with extra shows on Sundays and holidays. Manager Hadji deserves great credit for this. Original creation "The Sultan of Sahara" which is an original idea with Mr. Hadji who has proven to be one of the best stage managers and all around theatrical men in the business.

AT THE NOVELTY.

A very high-class bill is that given at the Novelty theater this week, which clearly demonstrates the aims of the management in presenting the best attractions to be obtained for the patrons of this popular little place of amusement. De Vaux, the musical comedian, makes a great hit with his humorous eccentricities and is recalled many times before he is permitted to retire. Miss Grace Courtland gives an exhibition in consummate skill which is truly astonishing, and the latter she creates a deep-rooted and of the kind which starts people to thinking. Woodward, the fashionable spinner, receives the famous musical instrument in every conceivable direction and elicits deserved applause for his clever turn. Shols and Cole, the two with the busy feet, entertain with the latest songs and dances, the latter of which include the best steps ever witnessed on any stage. The wonderful work of Salvali, the card manipulator and conjurer, stamps him as the best that has ever appeared in this city not excepting Hermann or Kider. Robert Whitely and a clever company present a laughable comedy entitled "Tangled Relations," which is unwound to the intense amusement of everybody. New motion pictures are shown, which depict amusing and interesting scenes. Reserved seats may be obtained at the box office, which opens daily at 11 o'clock.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Oakland People Know How to Save It.

Many Oakland people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases, such as backache, pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of an Oakland citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy: D. D. Davis, salesman in dress-goods department of Sallinger's department store, residence 1864 Broadway, Alameda, says: "If pain across the back which clings to me persistently for twelve months is any indication of kidney complaint, then I had it. Some three years ago, just such an attack occurred and knowing what I suffered, when I died in my old home, I never would have gone out of my way to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to personal friends. I know of more than one who has used Doan's Kidney Pills and who will be just as emphatic in their endorsement as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CALHOUN WILL NOT TAKE BACK UNIONIST EMPLOYES

Says Full Travel Will Be Resumed on All Lines When Public
Is Exempt From Violence—Richard Cornelius Asserts That Company Exaggerates.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—For several days there have been persistent rumors in the streets and pool rooms that the car strike will soon be declared off, and the union men will return to work, but President Calhoun, of the United Railroads, announces with much emphasis that such a termination cannot possibly come out of the situation.

The Sutter street cars were jammed yesterday, and even in the Mission there was a decided increase in the traffic. Women were out shopping, and it is said that the score-keepers had
the best day since the strike began.
Even on the Kentucky street line no violence was committed beyond the throwing of a few stones and blocking switches.

The police seem to have the situation in hand and the troops are not thought of, though Governor Gillett and General Lauck still maintain headquarters at the ferry building.

PRESIDENT CALHOUN SAID:
"Before the strike we were operating 23 cars on the Sutter street line on a headway of three and a half minutes.
Today we had 20 cars running on a two and a quarter minute schedule.
That is the best service ever given in Sutter street in its history. All the electric lines in the city, with the exception of the Sansome street line, were operated today. The San Mateo line was operated to the cemeteries."

"We expect that full travel will be resumed whenever the public is satisfied that all danger from violence is passed."

RICHARD CORNELIUS SAID:
"The situation pertaining to the strike is about the same. There were not as many people riding yesterday as there were a week ago. The reports from the company of the number of people carried and the number of cars run are greatly exaggerated. There are about 125 cars running and in the neighborhood of 20,000 people being carried. How many of these cars are hard to say. On a large number of the cars, which were ridden by members of our union who were seeking information, the reports were that over two-thirds of the fares on the register were tickets. One car had 35 passengers, four of whom paid cash fares and 31 gave tickets. Another had 15 passengers, seven being cash fares and eight tickets. As that runs the company ought to be able to sell tickets to the people at eight for a quarter, and perhaps it would do so if it were asked.
"If the car lines were owned by the municipality there is no question that the fares could be reduced and the wages of the employees increased, and I endorse J. J. Dwyer's statement that it is the only means of eliminating strike and political corruption."

MEN LEAVE BARN.
"Several men left the barn of the company yesterday and in order to get away they had to leave their belongings. These men state that they were brought here on false pretenses. They were told that there had been a strike

here, but that it had been settled, and this was again told them on reaching California by Mr. Jones, a division superintendent. It is alleged by them that there are a great many men very anxious to leave the service of the United Railroads."

ASSESSMENT OF BARBERS.
Journeyman Barbers' Union, No. 148, at a meeting held last evening, decided to assess each member $1 a month for the benefit of those unions whose members are on strike. The barbers have already made the following donations:
Carmen's Union, $100; Laundry Workers' Union, $100; Telephone Operators' Union, $50. Four candidates were indicated and their applications for membership received.

The Plasterers' Union at a meeting held last evening decided to assess each member 50 cents a week for the benefit of the carmen during the present strike.

Tinsmiths' Union, No. 48, voted $50
each to the Carmen's, the Laundry Workers' and the Telephone Operators' unions.

Sheet Metal Workers' Union, No. 278, at the meeting held last evening, decided to parade on Labor Day, and appointed the following committee to arrange for that event: J. Dennis, George Rogier, A. P. Murphy, James J. Doyle,
A. Gillen, J. Lee.

Class Bottle Blowers' Union, No. 22, has voted $150 for the unions on strike.
This is in addition to $150 which it gave for the same purpose one week ago.

SEEK PATERNAL FORGIVENESS

Heir to Haviland Millions Takes Bride to Europe.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Having reconciled himself and his girl bride after the first lover's quarrel, young Guy Haviland, his wife and Mrs.
Candler, her mother, are sailing tomorrow for Europe to show Millionaire Papa Haviland that he has no excuse in the world for disinheriting his son on account of the clandestine marriage.

The pilgrimage to the shrine of the $20,000,000 chimera being at Millions means many millions to the schoolboy husband and his schoolgirl wife.

Young Haviland is very confident of bringing his "government" to terms.
"When he sees my wife he'll welcome her as his daughter and do the right thing by me," said he.

How young Haviland, far under age and a school boy in New Hampshire, met, courted and secretly married a pretty young daughter of the former Assistant Secretary of State last April is now an old story. How living with her in New York, he ran out of funds and upon his father's American agent for a loan to keep his honeymoon going and how finally the agent investigated and found out about the secret marriage and cabled wildly to the father in France, who in turn ordered the discrepant youth home alone at once, are interesting chapters of the romance.

It is now said that the elder brother has been more than half converted and his influence with his father is very great. At any rate, he is sailing with the couple, and they are quite confident that the rest of their honey-moon will be spent "neath the battle-ments of the Haviland Chateau."

"And if he's grumpy and don't forgive, what do you and I care, sweetheart?" asked the pretty wife tonight.

"Not a rap," said the groom in true thatched-roof cottage rapture, "since I've got you."

GOVERNMENT STUDIES FIRE

San Francisco Disaster Laid to Lack of Foresight.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—A report in structural lessons derived from the San Francisco fire has been prepared by a government commission consisting of Professor Humphrey of the geological survey, Professor Frank Soule of the University of California and W.
A. Maxwell, corps of engineers, U. S. A.
They made a careful examination of the San Francisco situation at the instance of the geological survey, which desires to gather data as to the fire resistance qualities of various building materials and other information bearing upon technical structural questions. The report will be made public as soon as it is revised.

The commission takes the capitalistic of San Francisco to task for maintaining inflammable structures under pecuniarily dangerous conditions and declares that the disastrous fire could have been avoided, in spite of the earthquake and the paralysis of the water system, if proper foresight had been exercised.

It is asserted that conflagrations such as that of San Francisco are able to occur in other large American cities.
As an instance of the necessity of taking buildings absolutely fireproof, the commission cites a building in San Francisco which was fireproof, except for a wooden door in the basement. The fire found its way through that door and gutted a 12-story building, which would have escaped if the door had been fireproof.

The conclusions of the commission as to the relative merits of structural materials are not yet known, but it is understood that the method of construction adopted in San Francisco since the fire are strongly commended.

SAN FRANCISCO HOLDS RECORD FOR BIRTH RATE

Los Angeles County Leads the State in the Number of Marriages.

According to the monthly report issued by the State Board of Trade for April, Los Angeles county led in the number of marriages, but San Francisco excelled in the number of births.
The number of marriages was highest in the following counties: Los Angeles, 418; San Francisco, 335; Alameda, 275; Santa Clara, 92. The birth rate was highest in the following cities: San Francisco, 402; Los Angeles, 322; Oakland, 188; Berkeley, 52; Alameda, 49; San Jose, 44.

There were 372 deaths from tuberculosis of the lungs and 37 from tuberculosis of other organs, making a total of 409, or 15.2 per cent of all deaths during April in the state. There were 195 deaths, or 14.8 per cent, from diseases of the respiratory system, 312 being from pneumonia. Third in order were diseases of the circulation, causing 350 deaths, or 13 per cent. Typhoid fever was the most fatal epidemic of the month, 34 deaths being attributed to it.

The northern district medical society will hold a meeting in Napa on June 11, and Dr. David Powell will discuss the important subject of the pollution of the Sacramento river by the cities and towns along its banks.

Dr. E. B. Stone, of the board of health declares this to be a most vital question because of the fact that the water for many communities is obtained from the river.

DOCKED HORSE IS REGISTERED

Law of State is Not Generally Complied With—Owners Are Liable.

According to an act passed by the last legislature every owner of a docked horse in Alameda county is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to prosecution. There has been but one horse registered since this law has been in force and that was yesterday afternoon, when Stevenson & Steffens of 612 Telegraph avenue filed with the County Clerk a certificate of their docked delivery horse.

Although the practice of docking the tails of driving animals is not as extensive as it was some years ago,
there still are cases where it is done,
and at the instigation of humane societies throughout the state the aid of the state legislature was invoked to eradicate this sort of thing.

Bureau Officer L. H. Head, of the Oakland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Alameda county, has passed out a number of leaflets containing the act of the legislature of March 15, 1907.

District Attorney Everett J. Brown is very busy engaged with matters of more immediate importance at the present time and cannot devote his attention to the violations of this state law. He says he does not care of the practice and as quickly as possible he will look to its enforcement, unless he places it in the hands of a deputy before that time.

The section of the Penal Code of Alameda county relating to this matter is in full as follows:

AGAINST DOCKING.
"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to dock the tail of any horse, within the State of California, or to procure the same to be done, or to import or bring into this state, any docked horse, or horse whose tail has been docked, or to sell, lease, or convey, work use, race or deal in any unregistered docked horses, (horses), or horses within the State of California except as provided in section five hundred and ninety-seven of this code.

"Within thirty days after the passage of this act, every owner, or user of any docked horse, within the State of California, shall register his or her docked horse, or horses by filing in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which such docked horse, or horses, may then be kept, a certificate which certificate shall contain the name, or names of the owner, together with his or her position and address, a full description of the color, age, size and the use made of such docked horse, or horses; which certificate shall be signed by the owner, or his or her agent. The County Clerk shall number each certificate consecutively and record the name in a book, or register to be kept for that purpose only; and shall receive as a fee for recording of such certificate, the sum of fifty cents, and the clerk docket thereupon issue to such person so registering such horse or horses a certificate containing the facts recited in this section which upon demand shall be exhibited to any peace officer, and the same shall be conclusive evidence of a compliance with the provisions of section 597a of this code.

"The driving, working, keeping, racing or using of any unregistered docked horse, or horses after sixty days
after the passage of this act, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the fact that the party driving, working,
keeping, racing or using such unregistered docked horse or horses, docked
the tail of such horse or horses."

ONLY BREEDERS EXEMPTED.

"Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor;
provided, however, that the provisions of sections 597a, 597b and 597c, (which sections relate to such person so registering such horse or horses a certificate of a compliance with the provisions of section 597a of this code.
"The driving, working, keeping, racing or using of any unregistered dock-
ed horse, or horses after sixty days
after the passage of this act, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the fact that the party driving, working,
keeping, racing or using such unregis-
tered docked horse or horses, docked
the tail of such horse or horses."
